8. External Personal Data Protection Policy

8.1. Overview

In its capacity as controller, Le Negresco (whose registered office is located at 37 Promenade des Anglais, Nice, 06000) places great importance on protecting and respecting your privacy. Le Negresco builds relationships with its clients based on mutual trust: for Le Negresco, ensuring the security and confidentiality of personal data is an absolute priority.

Le Negresco complies with all French and European regulatory and legislative provisions in the area of personal data protection.

Le Negresco uses personal data to honour its commitment to offer its clients a personalised service.

Le Negresco applies a strict policy to guarantee the protection of personal data:

Personal data are processed in a transparent, confidential and secure manner;

Le Negresco is engaged in an ongoing process to protect the data of its users, in accordance with the Data Protection Act of 6 January 1978 as amended (hereinafter referred to as "LIL") and the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) of 27 April 2016 (hereinafter referred to as the "GDPR");

Le Negresco has appointed a DPO (Data Protection Officer), who has been declared to the CNIL).

8.2. The Purpose of this Policy

This policy applies to the personal data of clients and other persons concerned with whom Le Negresco has dealings, and to the handling of these personal data in all forms (oral, written or electronic).

8.3. Name and Details of the Controller

As the controller, Le Negresco adopts appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure the protection and confidentiality of personal data processed in accordance with the provisions of the Data Protection Act and the RGPD.

8.4. Collection and Origin of Data

All data are collected directly from the persons concerned. However, Le Negresco can process personal data taken from information provided by the person concerned or by third parties.

Le Negresco promises to obtain the consent of the persons concerned and/or allow them to oppose the use of their data for certain purposes when their consent is required. In all cases, the persons concerned will be informed of the purposes for which their data are collected.

8.5. Categories of data processed

Comply with legal and regulatory requirements.

Our Data Protection Officer (DPO) is also made aware of these purposes via the prearranged formalities carried out before the DPO.

8.7. Targeted Advertising

In accordance with applicable regulations, and with your consent when required, Le Negresco can use your personal data for commercial prospecting purposes (for example, to send you newsletters or inform you of certain events, or any other communications which may be of interest to you). According to regulations, you can withdraw your consent and exercise your right of opposition at any time.

8.8. Cookies and similar technologies

N LE SPA uses cookie technology to evaluate and improve the functionality of its website. Cookies identify your web browser when you visit Le Negresco website. According to regulations, you can disable cookies. However, if you do disable them you will not be able to use all of the functions of the N LE SPA website.

8.9. Recipients of Your Data

Le Negresco only discloses personal data to authorised and specified recipients, to government bodies as authorised within the framework of their mission, and to the judicial authorities upon request.

8.10. Data Retention Duration

All personal data processed by Le Negresco is archived as per its purpose, pursuant to the regulations in force, and stored in accordance with the legal statute of limitations, specifically for tax, commercial and accounting purposes.

8.11. Security

Le Negresco has put all technical and organisational measures in place to ensure security and confidentiality in the processing of personal data.

To this end, Le Negresco has adopted all appropriate measures in view of the nature of the data and risks presented by processing to protect the security of data and, in particular, to prevent them from being deformed or damaged and unauthorised third parties from accessing them (physical protection of the premises, authentication processes with secure personal access via confidential user names and passwords, the logging of connections, the encryption of certain data, etc.).

8.12. Transfers of Data Outside the European Union

As a general rule, Le Negresco processes and stores your personal data within the European Union. However, some service providers of Le Negresco are located in third countries outside the European Union. In these cases, your personal data may be transferred to these countries. In such cases, Le Negresco ensures that information is transferred in accordance with applicable regulations and guarantees sufficient protection for privacy and fundamental rights (in particular through standard contractual clauses).

8.13. Your rights

Le Negresco adopts all reasonable measures to ensure the accuracy and relevance of personal data processed.

In accordance with European regulations in force, you have the following rights:

The right of access;

The right of rectification;

The right of erasure;

The right of restriction of processing;

The right to object, in particular to the processing of your personal data for direct marketing purposes;

The right to be notified, upon request, of the list of recipients or categories of recipients of your personal data;

The right to data portability, i.e. the right to receive personal data that you have provided to Le Negresco in a format that is structured, in current use and legible by the machine and the right to send these data to another controller;

The right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority or to obtain reparations from competent courts if you consider that Le Negresco has not respected your rights;

The right to set instructions regarding the fate of your personal data after your death.

You may exercise any of these rights by writing to the data controller: 37 Promenade des Anglais, Nice 06000 or via e-mail at dpo@lenegresco.com, clearly identifying yourself with a copy of proof of identity (ID card or passport).

Under Article 17 of the General Data Protection Regulation, any requests for the deletion of personal data are subject to the obligations imposed by the regulations, in particular as regards the retention or archiving of documents. The right to erasure may not conflict with:

- The exercise of the right to freedom of expression and information;
- Compliance with a legal obligation (accounting documents);
- If the information relates to a legitimate public interest in the fields of health, or for scientific, historical, or statistical research;
- For their use in exercising or defending legal rights.8.14.

Contact

For all questions relating to this confidentiality policy or any requests relating to your personal information, you can contact Le Negresco:

By sending an e-mail to the Data Protection Officer at the following address: dpo@lenegresco.com

By writing to the following address: Le Negresco – A l'attention du Délégué à la Protection des Données – 37 Promenade des Anglais, Nice 06000

9. Information policy regarding cookies

Some features of this website (referred to hereafter as "Website") use the services proposed by third-party sites.

These features create cookies which enable these websites to trace your browsing.

These cookies are not created if you block them.

You can obtain information about the nature of the cookies created, accept them or block them, either globally for all of the website and all of the services, or individually, cookie by cookie.

9.1 Definition of Cookies

Cookies are information stocked in the devices (computer, tablet, smartphone, etc) of an Internet user and used by the website to send information to the Internet user's browser, enabling this browser to send information to the original website.

Cookies enable the conservation of information when the browser accesses the different pages of a website or when the browser returns at a later stage to this website, during their validity period.

Cookies are useful as they enable a website to recognize an Internet user's device.

Different types of cookies exist:

- session cookies, which are deleted as soon as the user exits the browser or leaves the website
- persistent cookies, which remain on the user's device until their expiration or until the user deletes them using the features of their browser.

9.2 Cookies on the Website

The Cookies used by SA Hôtel Negresco fall under several categories.

Cookies strictly necessary for browsing on our Website: these cookies enable the use of all of the features of the Website, such as reservation of a room online, without which the services requested could not be provided. These cookies do not collect information which can be used for marketing purposes.

Feature Cookies: these cookies are used to recognize an Internet user who connects to the Website and propose personalized features. The information collected by these cookies is anonymous but can identify an Internet user following association with other data. They can be used for advertising means.

Analysis and performance cookies: these cookies enable the collection of information on the way in which the Website is used (most visited pages, existence of error messages). These cookies do not collect information enabling the identification of the Internet user.

Advertising and targeting cookies: these cookies collect information on the pages visited by the Internet user as well as the hypertext links followed and are in general placed by advertising networks which share the information collected by the advertisers. This enables a personalization of the advertising online.

Third-party cookies: The Negresco can use the services of third parties in order to optimize the use of the Website by an Internet user and to post advertisements apart from the Website. These third parties (such as advertisers and web traffic analysis services) can also create cookies that Le Negresco does not control.

Should you wish to provide further information on behavioural advertising on the Internet and manage your preferences concerning the use of cookies for advertising purposes, or object to such use, please consult the European platform of the "Your Online Choices" third-party service.

9.3 Browser settings

The Internet user has the possibility of blocking his cookies through the configuration of the browser being used. Most browsers allow you to manage your cookies. It is possible to configure the browser to accept or block, on a case by case basis, cookies before they are created. It is also possible to regularly remove cookies from the device via the browser. To manage cookies and preferences, the configuration of each browser is different. It is described in the help menu of the browser.

However, if you configure the browser to block cookies, some features, pages, and spaces on the website will not be accessible, and we cannot be held responsible in this case.

You will find more information on:

Google
Firefox
Windows
Safari

The CNIL- Commission Nationale de l'Informatique et des Libertés- (French Data Protection Agency) website gives practical advice on the ways of removing cookies already created on your device depending on the browser which was used.

9.4 Modification

Le Negresco reserves the right to modify, update or correct, at any moment, and without previous notice, all or part of the policy relating to cookies and without notification by publishing the updated policy on the Website. It is important to regularly consult the policy relating to cookies.

9.5 Contact information
